

13th International Road Safety Conference

GAMBIT 2020

Challenges and requirements of improving road safety until 2030

Gdansk University of Technology, 7-8 May 2020

Ladies and Gentlemen,

We are pleased to remind you about the 13th International Road Safety Seminar GAMBIT to be held on 7-8 May 2020 at the Gdansk University of Technology.

We are pleased to announce that the Honorary Patronage over GAMBIT Conference was taken by the Minister of Infrastructure, Director of the National Center for Research and Development, Director of the General Directorate for National Roads and Motorways and the Rector of the Gdańsk University of Technology. The media patronage was taken by: Road Portal edroga.pl, Magazyn Autostrady.

The aim and subject of the conference. The conference's main theme will be the challenges and conditions for improving road safety and traffic in the coming decade. The conference will address the following areas:

- Challenges and opportunities for implementing Vision Zero,
- Programmes and strategic actions for road safety until 2030,
- Road safety innovation,
- From science to practice – an overview of road safety research projects,
- Vulnerable road users,
- New technologies for road safety,
- Road safety in road design guidelines,
- Safe road surfaces,
- Road safety management,
- Safe public transport,
- Urban mobility versus road safety.

Day one of the conference will include a plenary session with keynote speakers and scientific thematic sessions. Day two is dedicated to practical issues of implementing the principles, methods and technologies in managing road safety. Just as in the previous years, we are also planning a session for young scientists. We invite you to participate and submit speech or paper proposals.
